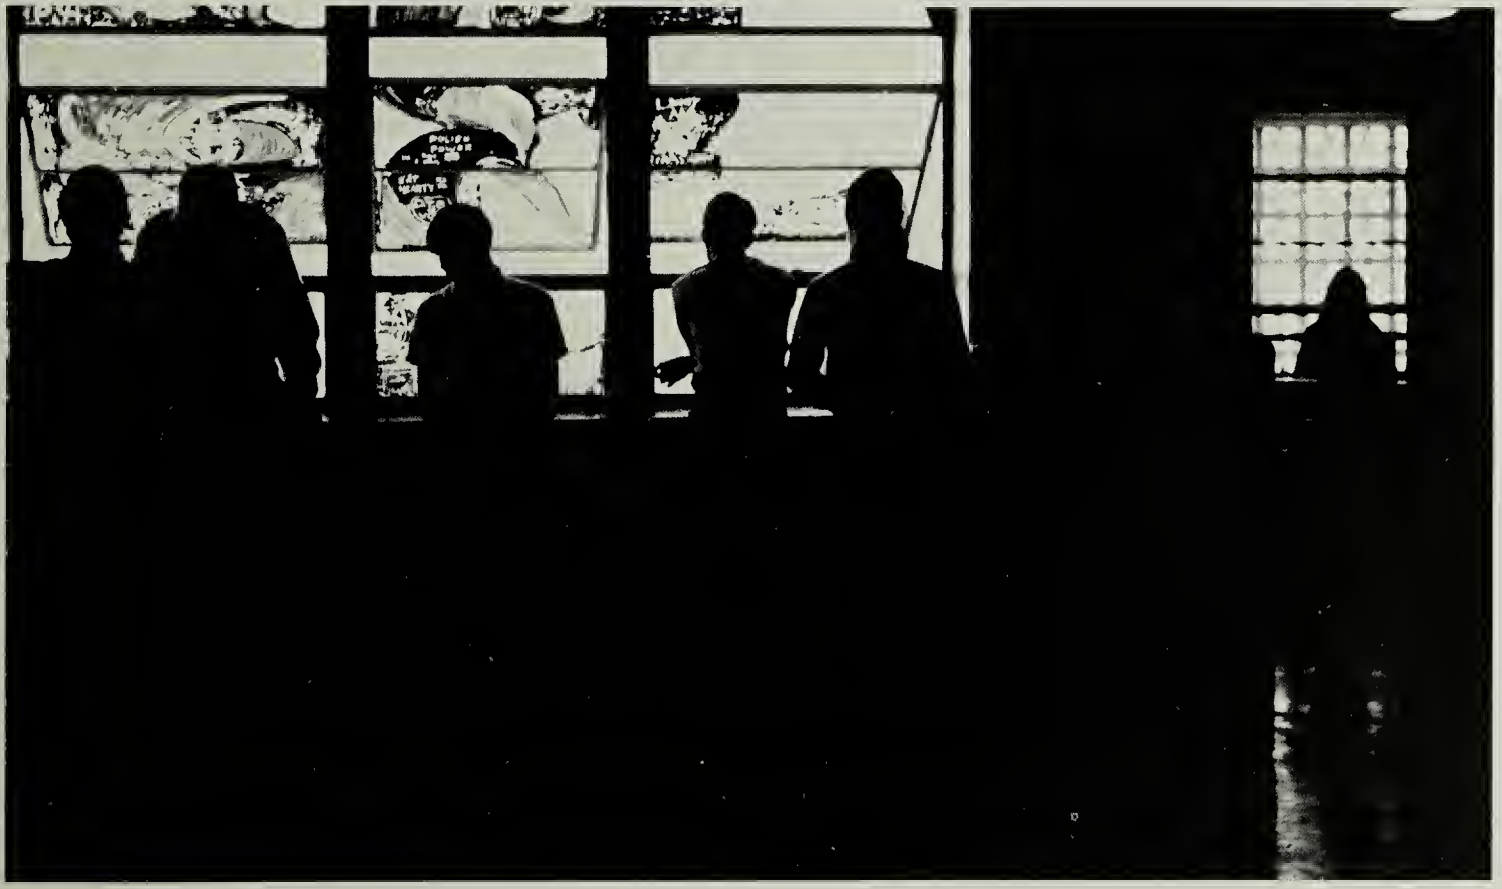
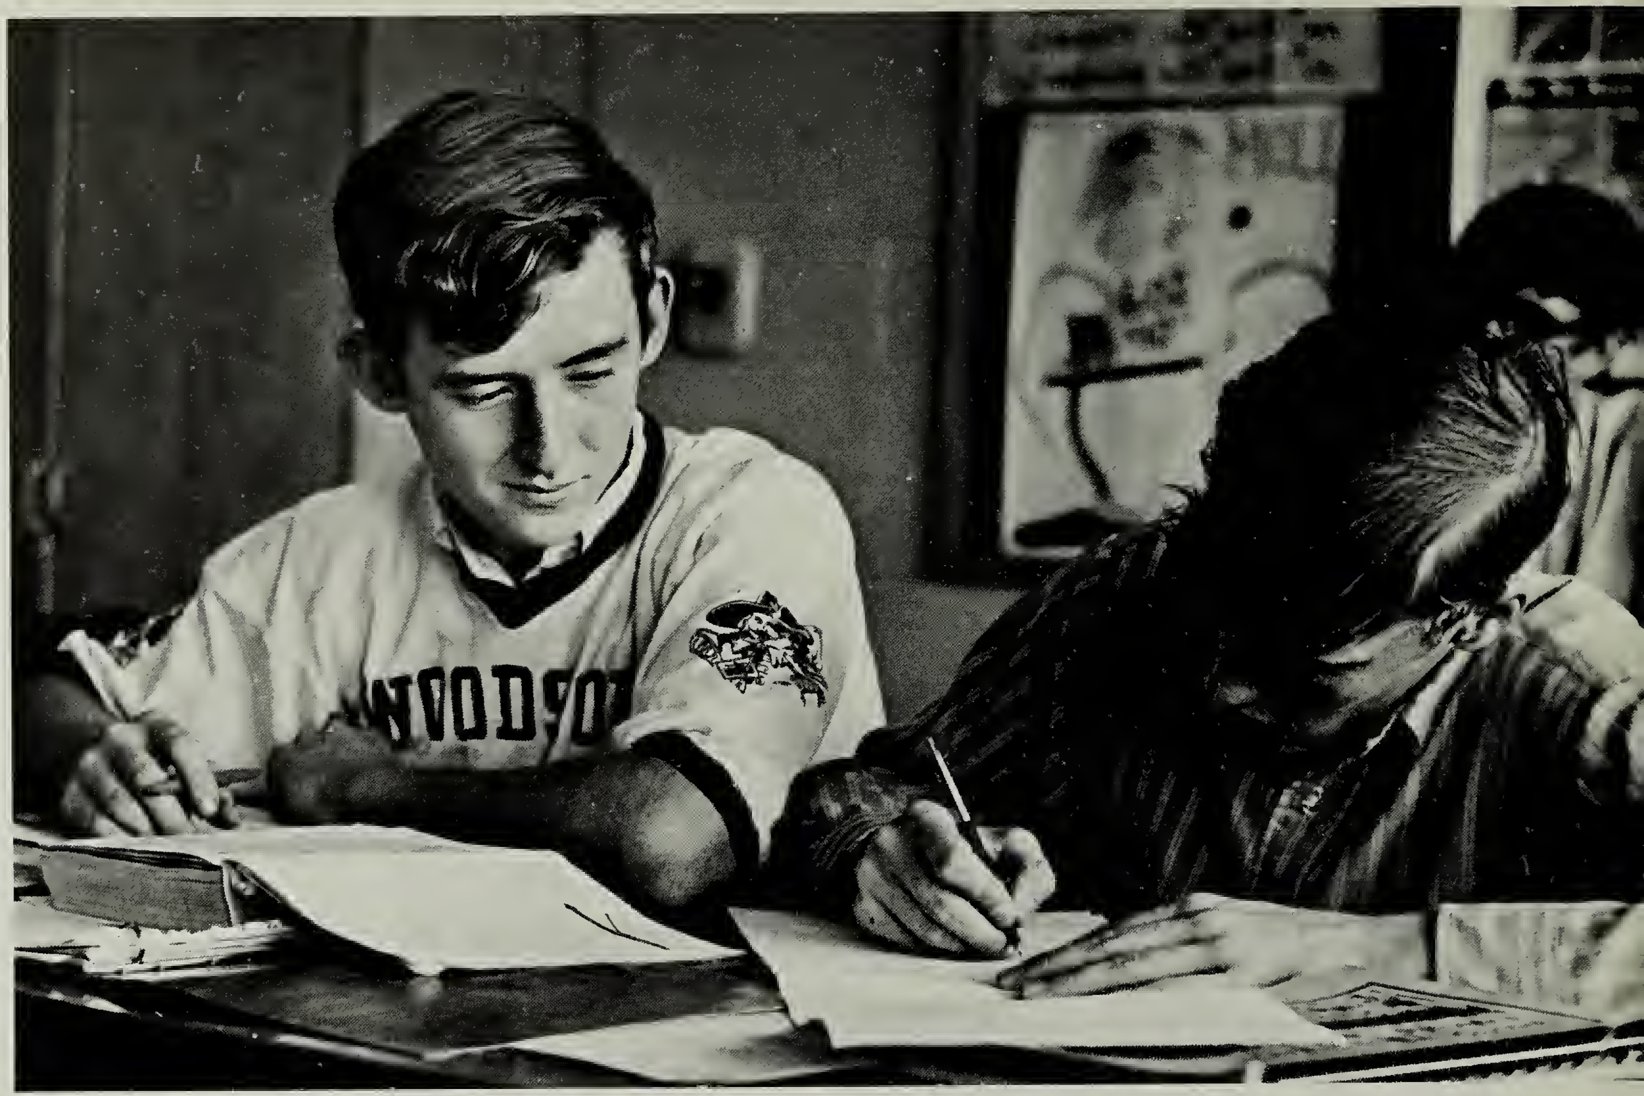
Woodson . . .

student life

Moments of joy with friends,
of tired victory at a well-played match,
of puzzlement at obscure equations,
of lonliness in the midst of crowds,
of satisfaction in a machine's mechanics,
of smiles and songs.
We stumbled through a year,
  and became perhaps a little older.
  (wiser)?





At 7:30 in the morning a joint effort was sometimes needed.

The younger Woodsonites invaded at 10:00 and retreated at 4:50.

The new schedule added new dimensions

In a school of 3300 who has the right of way?

Each school year begins with reminiscences of past summers.

Diversity of Students, Diversity of Spirit . . .

. . . Each a part of the "Woodson Way."

AND SUPPORT

Nearly every school function was made more enjoyable by the talents of Mark Frisbie.

Maybe we seem too idealistic by saying the members of Project T.O.U.C.H. brightened many children's lives but happily they really did.

Among other things, students experimented with the creativity of the camera in the new Mass Media course.

With yardsticks for hockey sticks and an eraser for a puck, Herbie Whittemore and Terry South improvised a quick game of ice hockey.

Only about four assemblies were presented this year. One of these was a concert by the E. Carolina Wind Ensemble.

"Oscar, if you've got anything on your chest besides your chin you'd better get it off."

The Odd Couple

"Fellows please use your costers!"

"I'm gone three minutes and I walk into a funeral parlor."

"Spoon? You dumb ignoramos. It's a ladle."

Cavalcade

Miss Hughes; Sponsor

Late one night, I noticed a small light among the dark chambers of the school. Proceeding cautiously, I made my way to the door of a room. Looking inside the window, I saw several people gathered around a long narrow table. My curiosity ran wild! What was going on? Could it be? Yes it was. It was the Cavalcade staff working on a deadline!

So few have spoken
for so many,
As soft touches
and grinding jaws
collide,
And burning thoughts
clash
with mindless words,
the Page,
where writers
fill their lines,
And soul
fills their hearts.

The stage lights
Whispers die
and the music begins.
Their voices blend in perfect harmony and everything is forgotten
as all are lost in the beauty of the melodies.
Silence returns
as the song ends
and thunderous applause rings out of the darkness.

Folk Guild

Where can you go to sing
what you really feel?
Where can you go to listen to the beauty of music?
Where can you go and be among friends with the same interest?
To a meeting of the Folk Guild.

Art Guild

An artist creates beauty—
the beauty of life
or of the imagination.
To some, the term "art" is limited.
But, to an artist,
any work created by the hand and mind
together is art.

Some extra time for freedom of expression is found by these students.

Modern Dance

Expression with their entire bodies,
Taking their thoughts and moods
and,
Expressing themselves with skill,
emotion,
grace,
and coordination.
Instead of words.
It's beautiful.

No, there is nothing quite as rewarding, enriching, and educational as being a charter member of the Film Club.

Photography Club

When not using their activity period for more important duties like eating lunch, the Photo Club turns its attention to its objective—the study of photography.

The many skills of picture-taking are studied and several different types of photography are examined. The Photo Club is where aspiring photographers gain the knowledge necessary to succeed in their field.

What do you mean get to class. I thought everyone had four lunch periods.

Astrology Club

Pisces . . . Leo . . . Taurus . . . What planet rules your house? Will the fifteenth of March be a good or bad day for financial action? Is love in the fifth orbit?

The Astrology Club takes time to find out. Their main goal is to take time to map out their own future by the Zodiac.

The Astrology Club and its sponsor discuss the future of each member.

Aviation Club

Aviation, contrary to popular belief—this club does not spend the entire year making paper airplanes. No, instead they take frequent field trips to learn more about their passion to own and fly real airplanes.

Forensics

PROSE . . . A literary medium with variety of shythm and resembling everyday speech POETRY . . . Writing that formulates a concentrated imaginative awareness of experience in language SPEECH . . . The communication of thoughts in spoken language FORENSICS . . . Prose, poetry, speech, total expression

Mary Monroe and Steve Schulin perform in the 70-71 Forensics Assembly.

Archaeology

An excavation for relics from the past?
Why?
To learn the arts, science, geography,
and history of ancient times.

Equestrian Club

Fun
Something you like to do because you enjoy it. That's why the members of the Equestrian Club ride horses, they enjoy it.

Here two equestrians show their love for horses on a spring-like day in March.

Debate Team

For those who love to argue 'til they're blue in the face.
For those who love to shout and scream.
For those who want to win an argument.
For those the Debate Team was formed.
And then . . . They WON!

Sharing life—a gift to these children that isn't measured, but highly valued.

People can be hard to figure out. They disparage the poverty in the world and glutten themselves with extravagant luxuries. They deprecate war and do nothing to compromise. Because of this, there is not too much gratitude for those who see a chance to help—and do it.

Key Club: the key to service.

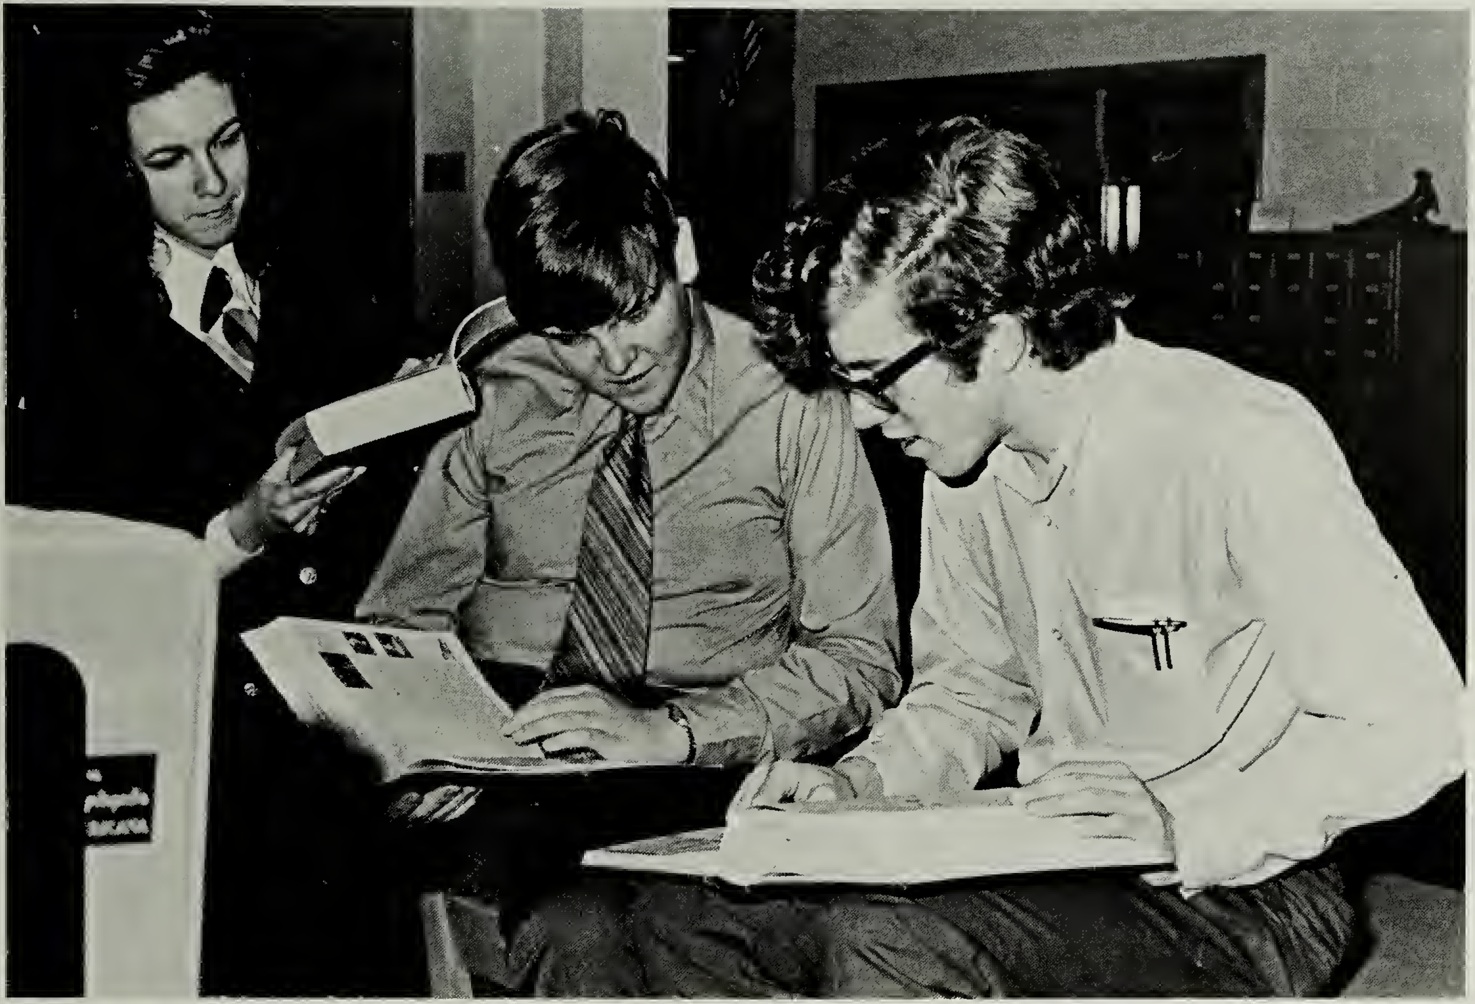
Tri-Hi-Y

Jr. Tri-Hi-Y members find many uses for boxes left from their mint sale this year.

Excalibur Tri-Hi-Y President Amy Wallach and Vice-President Allison Adler make plans for their club, as member Chery Vandegriff looks on.



Debbie Meloy, Paul Johnson, and Jon Smith study up for the Its Academic Team.

IT'S ACADEMIC TEAM

They are members of Woodson who represent our school's high academic standing.
They rank high in their class because they possess large stores of knowledge from which they draw for competition.

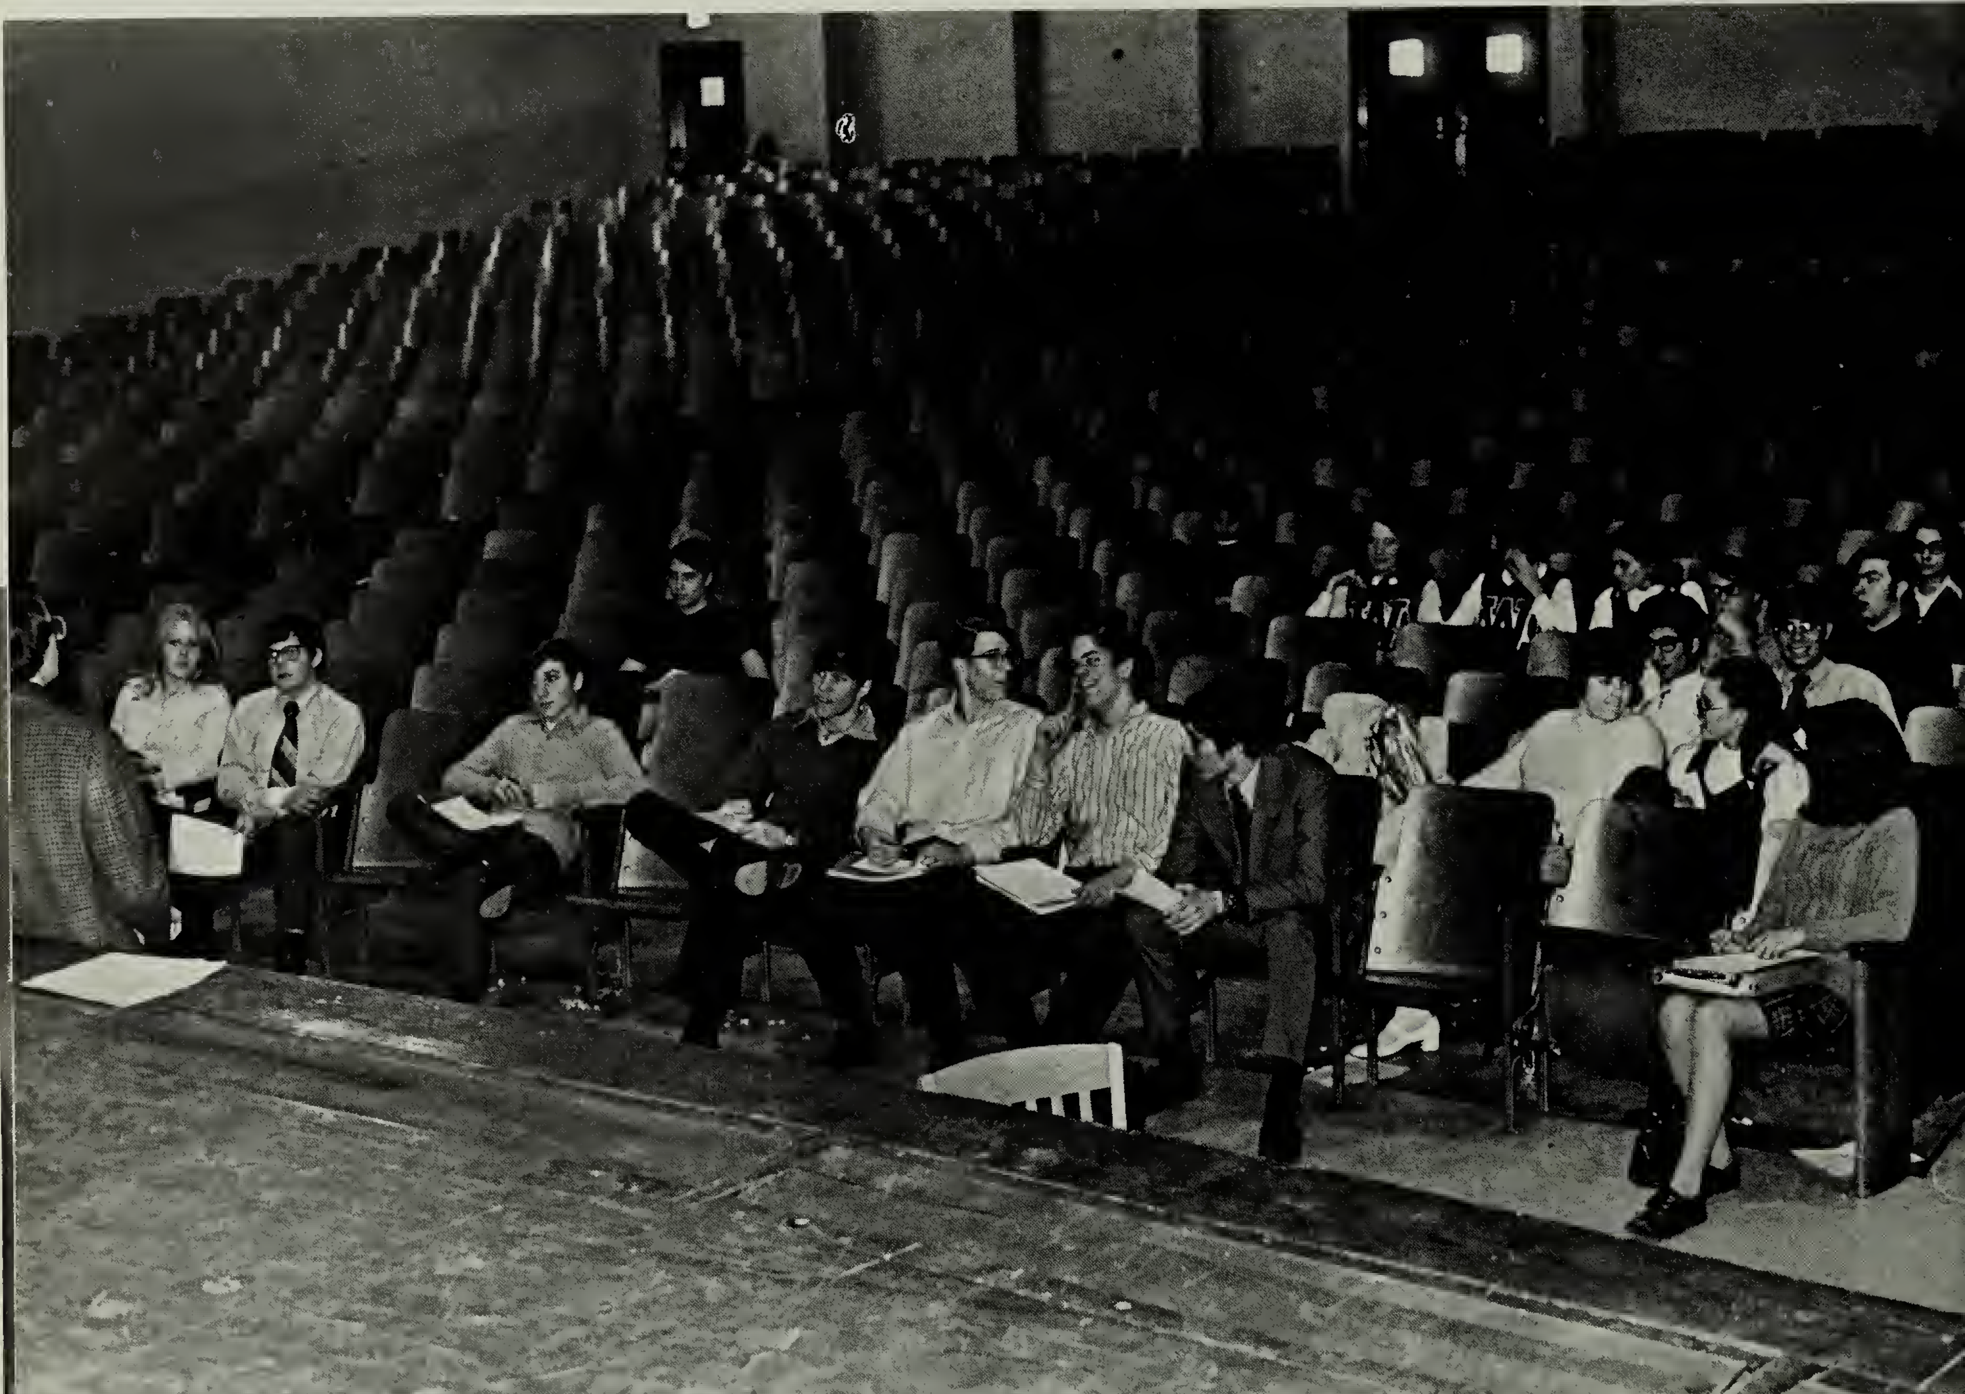
Student Advisory Council



Although it got off to a slow start, the House of Delegates holds a promising place in Student Advisory Council. CAVALIERS WIN 1st CHAMPIONSHIP IN HISTORY OF WOODSON

Woodson breezed through it's annual rout of Oakton in the first away game of the season. Fullback Gary Mustian was the leading ground gainer in the 43 - 0 runaway with 134 yards on 14 carries. Quarterback Mark Bladergroen, looking as good as in the first game, had a hand in four of the touchdowns against the weak Oakton defense. There were several surprise plays in the second half, among them a 35 yard field goal by Mike Lyon, a 30 yard touchdown interception runback by Jeff Moser and an 80 yard run by Jay Monroe.

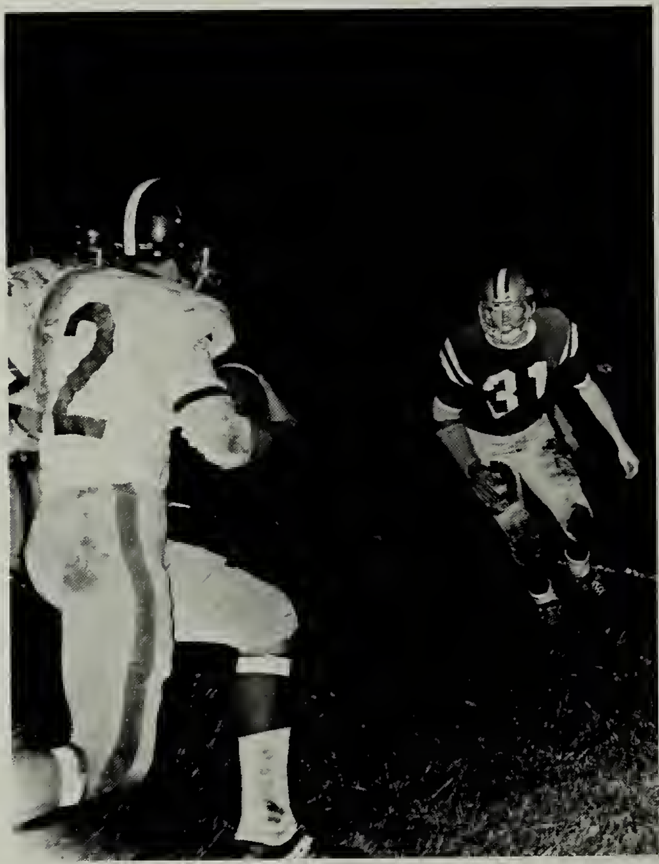
Woodson - Moser 30 yd. interception (Lyon kick)
Woodson - Monroe 80 yd. run (Lyon kick).



Senior quarterback Mark Bladergroen, passed and ran for over 200 yards in leading Woodson to a 40 - 6 victory over Wakefield in a Virginia AAA non - district game, before a crowd of 2,500 at Woodson.

Mark thoroughly confused the Wakefield defense as he ran for 199 yards in 10 carries and completed six of eleven passes for 89 yards. He figured in five of the six touchdowns Woodson scored.

The Cavaliers scored twice within 37 seconds late in the second period to take a commanding halftime lead. Bladergroen tossed a 3 yard scoring pass to Richard Tackaberry with 45 seconds left in the half. Kurt Swanson recovered a Warrior fumble with 8 seconds remaining and Mark hit Richard again with a 21 yard touchdown pass.

Woodson fullback Gary Mustian was the game's leading rusher with 146 yards.

Wakefield - Halminski 70 yd. pass from Connors (run failed)
Woodson - Bladergroen 5 yd. run (kick failed)
Woodson - Carter 2 yd. run (Lyon kick)

Woodson's third straight victory was highlighted by the incredible running of Gary Mustian. The speedy junior rambled for 143 yards and two touchdowns in less than three periods to smother Stuart 20 - 6.

Gary now has accounted for 451 yards in Woodson's first three games. Gary cracked a scoreless tie by sprinting 51 yards on a quick operner in the third period and capped a 45 yard drive with a 1 yard plunge laterin the quarter.

On a night, when it's offense was below par for the first half, the Woodson defense was superb. Led by center of the line, tackles Graig Funk and Kurt Swanson and middle guard Chuck Baer, the Cavaliers held the Raiders without a first down untill midway through the fourth quarter.

Stuart - Stokely 3yd. pass from Wrigley (pass failed)

Woodson used four touchdown passes by Mark Bladergroen and the rushing talents of halfback Mike Carter to shutout West Springfield 35 - 0.

Bladergroen hit on 10 of 14 passes for 302 yards including two touchdown tosses to Dave McNaughton in the first half that staked the Cavaliers to a 15 - 0 halftime advantage.

Woodson first scored early in the second quarter following a West Springfield fumble on its own six - yard line. One play later Mark connected on a scoring pass to McNaughton.

Annandale's undersized defense responded in the final five minutes of the game to hold off a desperate Woodson team for a 19 - 14 loss. It was Woodson's first loss in five games. Woodson drove to the Atom 26 yard line with 3 minutes, 30 seconds remaining, only to have two passes batted away on third and fourth downs.

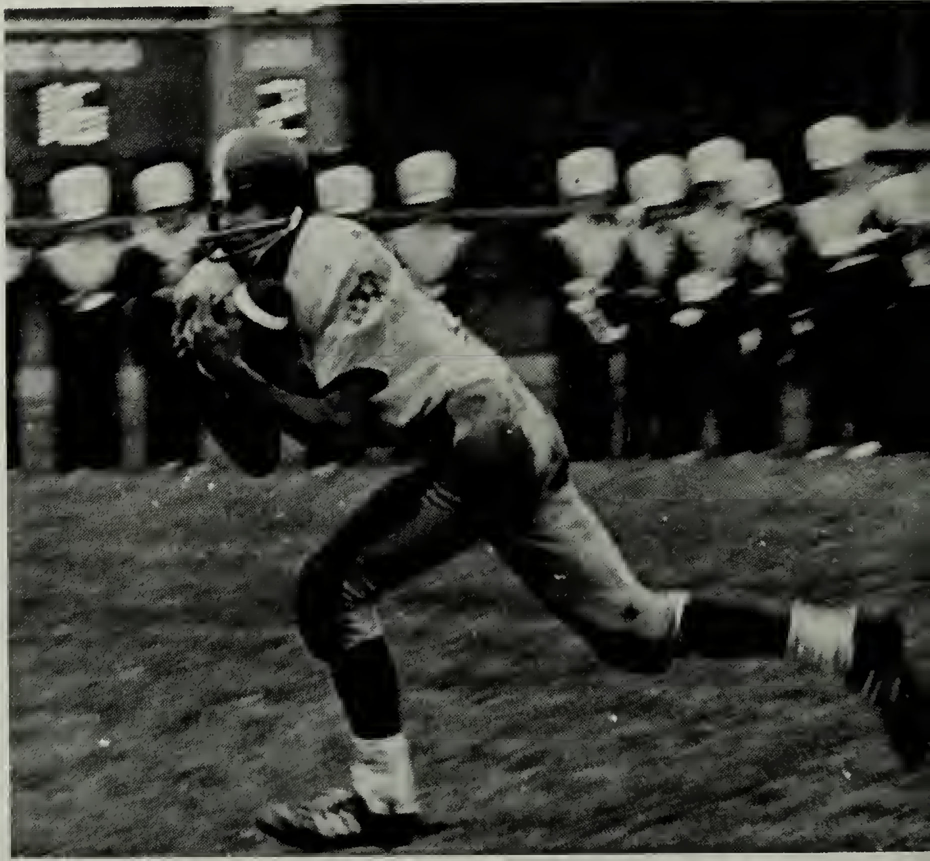
Annandale - Gooley 6 yd. pass from Knox (pass failed)
Woodson - Craig 46 yd. pass from Bladergroen (Craig pass from Bladergroen)



Woodson was held to a scoreless tie as the Langley Saxon's stunned the Cavaliers. Woodson drove to the Langley 1 yard line before losing the ball on downs in the first period. Mark Bladergroen moved the Cavaliers through the air for 99 yards on 8 completions in 24 attempts. The Cavaliers posted 9 first downs to the Saxons 7.

Woodson recovered two Langley fumbles, with defensive tackle Chuck Baer getting one and linebacker, Kevin Bomba getting the other.

It was a cold, dark Halloween Eve and the wind driven rain whistled around the players. Suddenly - a shot rang out! It was the end of the first half. Edison was ahead having scored on a three yard run. But all was not lost; The Cavalier defense had managed to hold, in the rainsoaked mud. Although the Offense could not get moving, the score was only 6 - 0. The two teams traded punts in the 3rd quarter and neither side could gain an advantage. "Then Edison scored on a punt return." The conversion was good and Edison led Woodson 14 - 0. The Cavaliers mounted a gallent drive in the final minutes, culminating in a T.D. pass to John Craig, but it was too little and too late.

Woodson .... 0 0 0 6 - 6
Edison .... 6 0 0 8 - 14
Edison - Thompson 3 yard run (run failed).
Edison - Moses 62 yard punt return (run by Thompson)
Woodson - Craig 7 yard pass from Bladegroen (pass failed)

Woodson's Mark Bladergroen ran for two touchdowns and passed for two others as the Cavaliers moved into first place in the Virginia AAA Northern District with a 27 - 4 victory over Falls Church.

Woodson got on the board late in the half on a 61 yard pass from Bladergroen to Mike Carter. Mike caught the pass between two Jaguar defenders and outran another for the score. Bladergroen ran for the conversion to give the Cavaliers a 14 - 7 halftime lead.

Woodson drew first blood in the second half, this time on a 22 yard toss from Bladergroen to Richard Tackaberry. Gary Mustian also came up with a 41 yard run of his own.

Statistically, Woodson outgained the Jaguars in every department, 153 to 93 on the ground and 182 to 98 in the air.

Woodson - Tackaberry 22 yd. pass from Bladergroen (kick failed)
Falls Church - Day 2 yd. run (Bell kick)
Woodson - Bladergroen 9 yd. run (Lyon kick)

Woodson clinched at least a tie for the Virginia AAA League Northern District championship with a 17-0 victory over Fairfax.

Woodson drove 65 yards early in the second quarter, with Richard Tackaberry taking a six yard touchdown pass from quarterback Mark Bladergroen. It was Tackaberry's seventh touchdown of the season.

Woodson added a 35 yard, Mike Lyon field goal later in the quarter, then moved 75 yards in the third quarter before Bladergroen scored from the two. Fairfax did not penetrate Woodson's 40 all day.

Fairfax 0 0 0 0-0

Woodson-Tackaberry 6 yd. pass from Bladergroen (Lyon kick)
Woodson-Lyon 35 yd. field goal
Woodson-Bladergroen 2 yd. run (Lyon kick)

Mark Bladergroen's last touchdown pass at Woodson will be his most memorable of his Varsity career. Mark's 39 yard bomb to Richard Tackaberry came on Woodson's first offensive play and was just enough to edge visiting Jefferson, 6-0, and earn Woodson its first Virginia AAA Northern District Championship.

Woodson's defense was primarily responsible for setting up that score, pouring in quickly to rush Jefferson punter Gary Spates into a squibbed 28 yard punt.

The Jefferson game also enabled halfback Gary Mustian to obtain his leading rusher crown.

Jefferson 0 0 0 0-0

Woodson-Tackaberry 39 yd. pass from Bladergroen (kick failed)

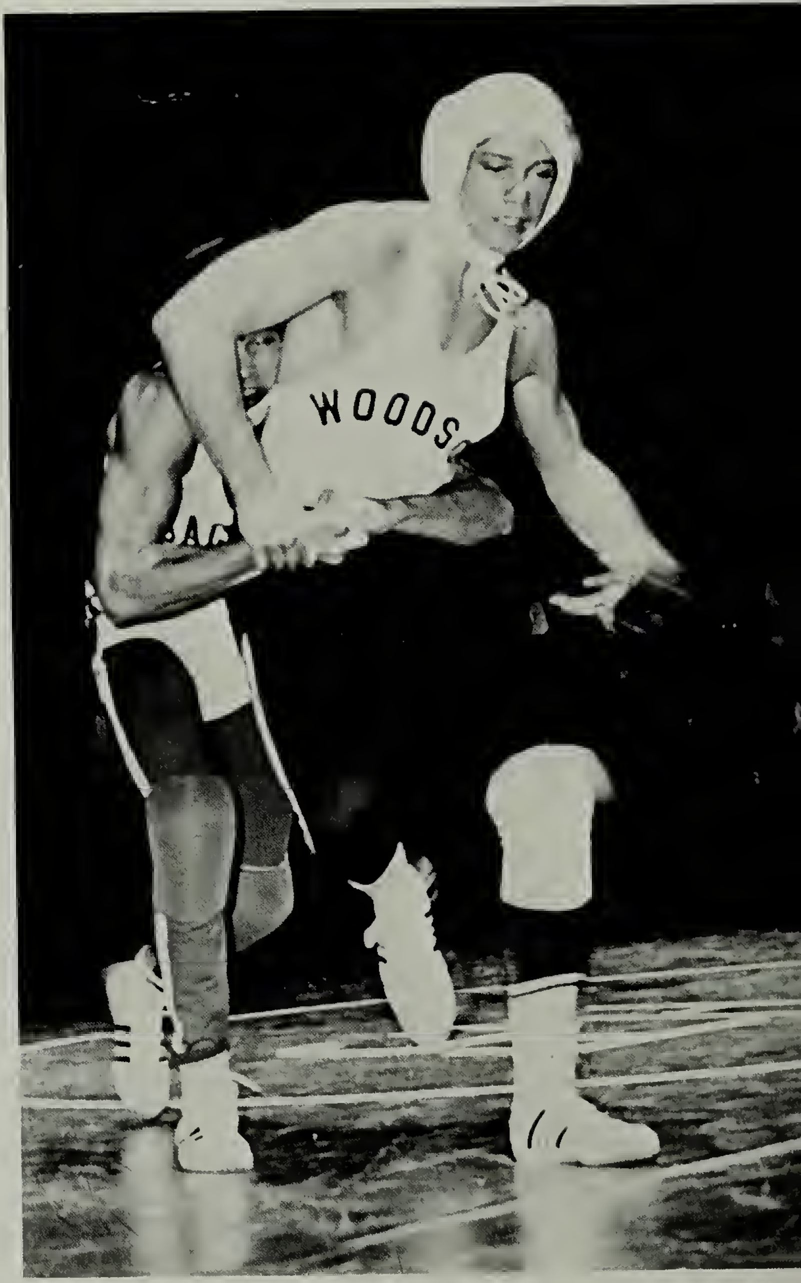
John Snitzer moves in for the kill as his victum struggles to free himself.

Pete Devereaux bites his tongue as he attempts a sit-out.



Co-captain Steve Buescher escapes from his attacker at the end of a deadlocked match.

Bill Monroe pins his man in one of the most thrilling performances all year.

Mark Nepi struggles to break loose from his adversary's grip.

Well, Lance Buckingham certianly got himself wrapped up in his work this time!

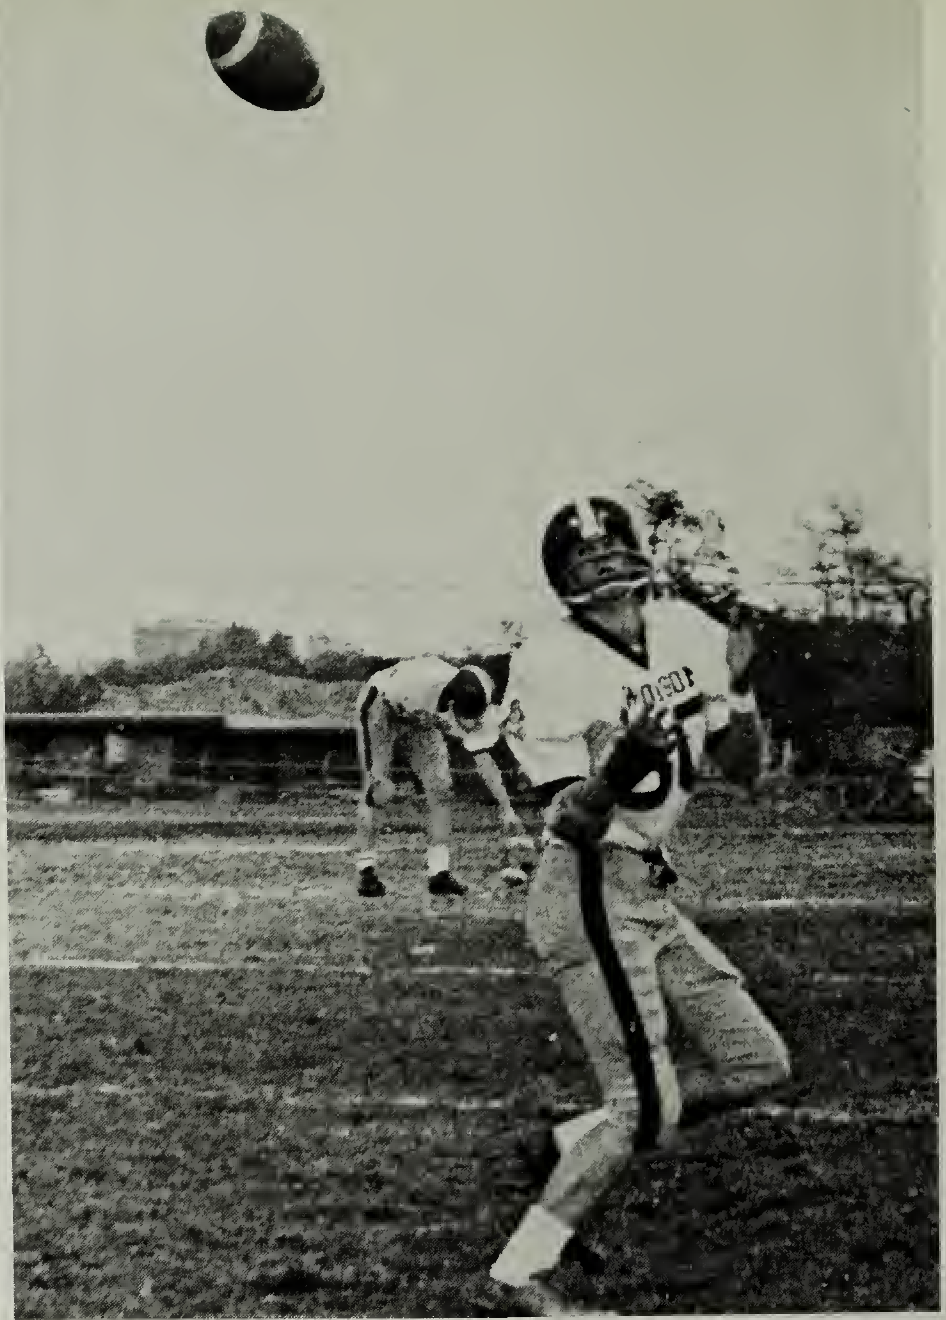
Junior Varsity Football

The J.V. Football team this year captured their district title with only two losses. Their climactic game with Fairfax gave them the edge they needed as they were the underdogs. Many of these fine J.V. players are expected to start as Junior's next year and defend the Varsities District championship as well as their own.



A J.V. player catches a bomb from quarterback David Pugh.

Halfback Jim Landry evades the Fairfax secondary and makes an important first down.

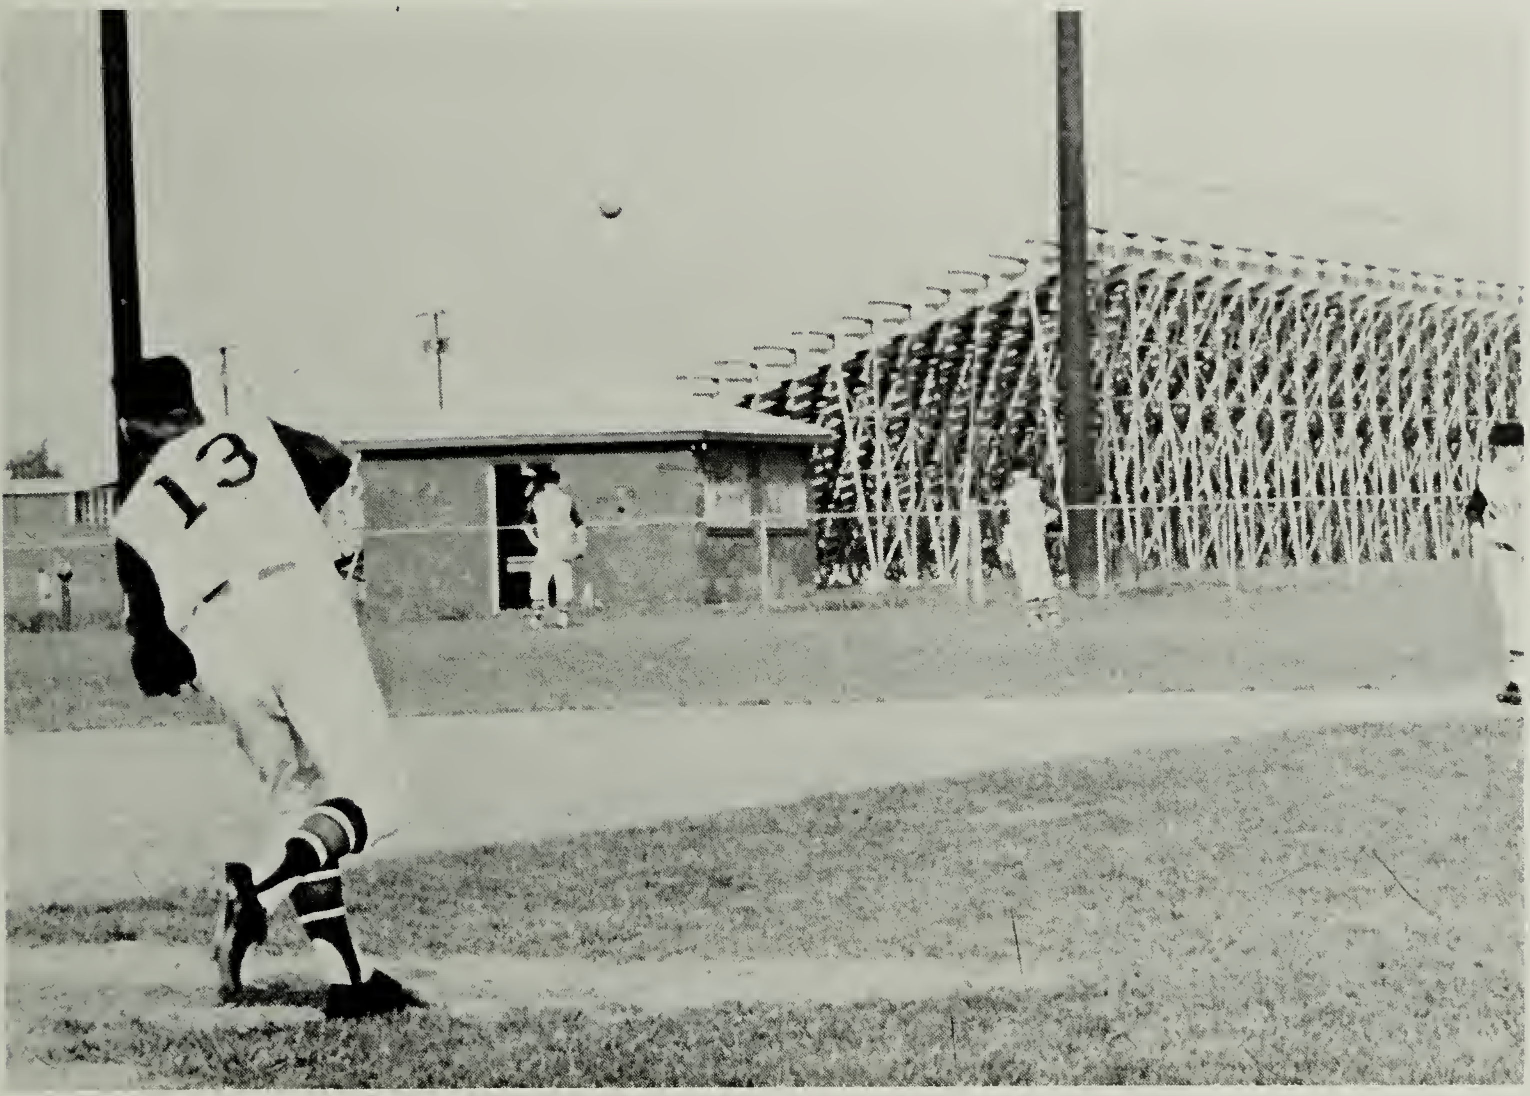
Varsity Baseball

The Cavalier baseball team started out slowly but came on strong at the end of the year and won four of its last five games to post a 9 - 11 record. The batmen boasted a strong pitching staff but had problems in the hitting department. Great players such as Bob Hendrickson, Phil Brooks, Bob Luzader and Rick Marsteller helped to spark their team. Charlie Ing won the batting title with a .326 average. Charlie also led the team in home runs by knocking in three round - trippers.

Batting specialist Charley Ing keeps his poise and lets a ball pass.

The 1st baseman holds his runner close as an alert 3rd baseman anticipates a bunt.

Junior Varsity Baseball



Third baseman Roger Dunn makes a double play relay to shortstop Greg Whitman.

The Woodson Junior Varsity Baseball team, coached by Mr. Red Jenkins got off to a slow start by losing its opener to Falls Church 5 - 0. In their second game of the season, the Cavaliers gave Annandale a bruising, winning by a score of 19 - 9. The Cavaliers went to Fairfax and took their third game by a score of 9 - 1. The J.V.'s took on Jefferson next, gaining a 2 - 1 victory. Stwrting on the mound for Woodson was John Snitzer. In their fifth game of the season, the Cavaliers dropped a 4 - 1 decision to Stuart. Outstanding names on the team were, M.V.P. John Snitzer, (ss) Greg Witman, (3B) Roger Dunn, (OF) Bill Pennington and (C) Kelly Dennis.

Varsity Track

Eric Young gives a W.T.W. shuttler an encouraging sign of confidence.

Kurt Swanson throws another weightman victory.

The Cavalier trackmen failed to do well in some of the big meets this year but did well in dual meets, losing only to Stuart and Annandale. Woodson should do well next year because the backbone of the team consisted of underclassmen. Chuck Baer proved to be the outstanding performer of the team by setting a new school record in the discus of 156 feet, 1 inch. This was the fourth time this year that Chuck has broken his own record. He also placed sixth in the state track meet at Williamsburg. Other excellent track men are Neal Wenger, Kim Mitchell, Pat Robbins, Gary Mustian and Randy Ney.

Kenny Cook and teamate Chuck Dukes overtake an opposing miler.

Chuck Baer, not burdened by his medalsome letter jacket, hurls another record breaker.

Precisionettes

The Precisionettes prove that they truly are a number one drill team. Time and labor spent in perfecting routines was especially noticeable in their trophy acquiring ventures. An invitation to the Cherry Blossom Parade fulfilled the dream of the aspiring Precisionettes.

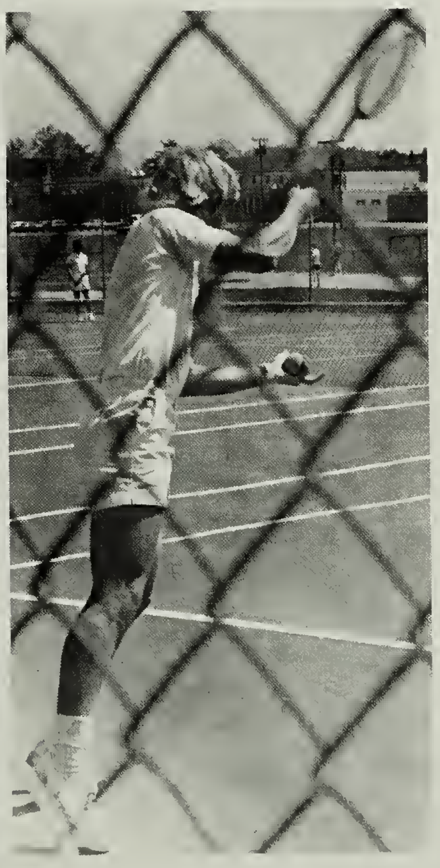
Varsity Tennis Team

Fighting the cold March winds, the Cavalier netmen practiced hard for their approaching competition. Fancy footwork, good timing, and lots of hustle, were stressed by head coach Dick Pugh.



Head coach and fearless leader, Dick Pugh is seen here during his college days at Western Maryland.

Kim Evanko bats in another victorious R.B.I.

Varsity Softball

3rd basewomen Kathy Brydges makes her relay to Mary Lynch at homeplate.

The girl's Varsity softball team midway through their season were defending a 5 - 0 record. Mary Nesbit (1st base) and Terry Shillings (3rd base and relief pitcher), who were co - captains, led their team through a brilliant season.

The team included several strong hitters such as Susie Law, who chalked up several home runs, and Mary Nesbit who has come through many times with good strong hits. In her second year on the mound, Cathy Nesbit did an outstanding job.

Varsity Softball ended with a record of 8 - 2, which placed them first in the district and tied them for first place in the county.

Cathy Murphy unleashes a decisive strike.

Junior Varsity Softball

The Junior Varsity softball team coached by Mrs. Imhoff and managed by Patty Bridges, has a record of three wins and two losses. Both losses were to an extremely tough Falls Church team. The team triumphed over Stuart (11 - 5), Annandale (12 - 5), and Fairfax (11 - 6). West Springfield also suffered a defeat (17 - 10) in a pre - season scrimmage.

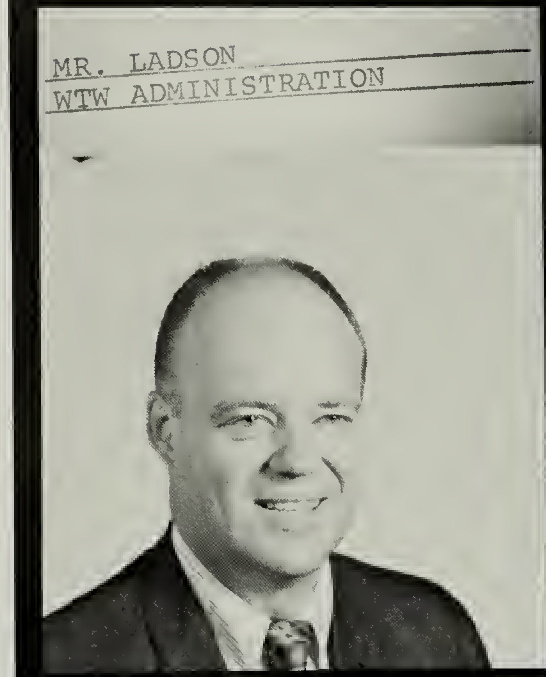
Mr. William P. Ladson



MR. LADSON
WTW ADMINISTRATION

The door was open; then again, it always is if you really want to go in. The sign on the door says "Principal," but if you look really hard, you get to thinking it's saying other things. "This is the Woodson Way," it says, "it's still here." But the Man was sitting inside and I looked kind of funny out there squinting and staring at his door, so I went in and said I was there for the interview. "Sit down," he said, and started talking. He's never at a loss for words. I looked around the office, which is pretty well used, with all its School Board publications and things.

There is a mirror in the room, though not everyone has seen it; it has a big ruler on the side and a little plaque saying "Do you measure up?" My glance shifted to the mirror in unison with a glittery flash behind the desk. In the mirror, to my utter amazement, I saw a man with unearthy reasonableness and understanding.

"Goodness gracious," I said, "he's the President!!!"

The I turned, and of course it was only Mr. Ladson. He made one thing perfectly clear; he loved his job and it's worth the responsibility and everything else. I switched my eyes to the mirror again (for you can only dig into a mountain a little at a time) and there was another little flash.

"Oh Lord," it's Vince Lombardi!!!," and sure enough there was that famous dedicated, determined set of the jaw and the smile. I nearly jumped out of the chair with that one, but as I spun around, it was only Mr. Ladson.

"God, Family, and Football," he said.

"God, Family, and Woodson," he said.

I listened some more, couldn't help it, it's always so cool to listen to. . . I started to fidget a little. I craned my neck back, and that little flash happened again.

What was in the mirror didn't amaze me so much this time, but in another way it did.

"Glory be, it's Cavalier Charlie," and this time he still looked like Mr. Ladson, but the suit and plumes and everything else were there; so was the friendship, reasonableness, dedication and everything else.

That's what he's all about, you know.

Greg Brooks, Jerry Barteloni, and David Chase have decided to forget the studying for awhile.

In this case, only one out of nine noticed the camera, instead of the other way around.

These two students have decided that the best way to spend English is to stay away from it.

Seniors at Play

Carol Chase teaches these chorus hopefuls a dance routine.

Stephanie Fuller is the star of the Class of '71's musical, MAME.

The male lead this year was double cast with Erich Eiselt and Bill Montgomery. Here Beau gets a few words of advice from Mother Burnside (Denise Cooper).

Pregnant Gooch (Linda Petty) shocks the Upsons (Rick Gimmi and Chery Vandegriff).

Ito (Mike Baker) chuckles at the "little angels", Patrick and Gooch, (Jim Bloch and Beth Cumbie) on Mame's shoulder.

"We'll always be bosom buddies." with Mame (Stephanie Fuller) and Vera (Linda Coates.)
